

ROBERT W. ROBINSON HIGH SCHOOL LONG-TERM SERVICE AWARD NOMINATION FORM // Supported by American Youth Soccer Organization

The Robert W. "Robby" Robinson Award, supported by American Youth Soccer Organization (AYSO), is named after the Philadelphia-area high school coach who has touched virtually every aspect of United Soccer Coaches. A Hall of Fame member, Robinson is a past president of the organization and received the Honor Award in 1999. Each year, United Soccer Coaches presents this award to a person who has raised high school soccer to new heights through his or her long-term dedication to the game. Recipients will be honored at the 2019 United Soccer Coaches Awards Banquet, to be held Friday, Jan. 11, in Chicago, IL. United Soccer Coaches will provide the winner with an expense reimbursement.

To be eligible for consideration, the nominee must:

- » Have been an United Soccer Coaches member for at least 20 years;
- » Have coached or been an administrator at the high school level for a minimum of 20 years;
- » Have a history of outstanding long-term service to United Soccer Coaches and achievement in high school soccer;
- » Have made contributions that have had a positive impact on the improvement, advancement and/or presentation of high school soccer;
- » Have conducted themselves in a way that exemplifies the United Soccer Coaches Code of Ethics;
- » Not be a current paid United Soccer Coaches office staff member or a member of the Board of Directors.
